August 2014

Film of the making of the Village Garden

We spent a very enjoyable, if hot, couple of hours, watching the BBC2 film of the garden in 1999.

It reminded us how lovely the garden looked 15 years ago.

Thanks to your generosity we took £250.50. The wine cost £25 so we have £225.50 to pay for some more youthful help

Many thanks to John and Anthea Harding, who arranged the projection and made copy DVD's to sell.

We sold, for £5, all the DVD,s he had made. I anyone would like a copy, he has kindly offered to make more.

Just give me a ring on 472300

Lovely people have been working in the garden and it looks much better. If anyone can spare the odd hour to help it will be much appreciated.

A final whinge - dogs are being walked in the orchard and their excrement left on the grass.

We hope to make the orchard an area for the village children - so no dogs please.

COFFEE MORNINGS

The next St Peter's coffee morning is on Wednesday August 20th, 10.30 – 12 noon at Anthea and John Hardings house:
Amberwood, Veals Lane. As usual profits to be split between St Peter's and Homestart North Dorset.

Our September coffee morning will also have a produce sale, so get cracking with those chutneys and jams!

GARDEN PARTY AT MICHAELMAS COTTAGE

Michael and Tony would like to thank those villagers who attended, donated items for the stalls & auction and helped with refreshments.

It was a lovely happy occasion and a grand total of £700.00 was raised, with no costs.

Curates Corner

By the time this is printed I will have joined Sturminster gym: at the moment I am having heart palpitations at the thought of my induction session next week. My nerves are not to do with the other people going to the gym – I know lots of them and they are all lovely – it's the environment that freaks me out with all those scary machines and different bits of equipment.

Joining the gym is for me like joining the church for other people. Yes, we might know churchgoers, know they are not intimidating or scary but lovely and kind. But it's the environment that is daunting.

Here is the welcome notice we have at St Peter's in case you haven't seen it and need some encouragement, like me, to join something you don't really have any experience of.

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, gay, rich or poor.

We welcome you if you can sing like Andrea Bocelli or can't hold a note. You're welcome here if you're "just browsing," or if you haven't been in church since baby Andrew's Baptism.

We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not yet grown up, and to children who are growing up too fast. We welcome football dads, multi tasking mums, coffee lovers, vegetarians or junk-food eaters. We welcome you if you're having problems or you're down in the dumps or, if you don't like "organised religion," we've been there too.

We offer a special welcome to those who work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or because Grandma is visiting and wanted to go to church.

We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, or got confused by satnav and wound up here by mistake. We welcome tourists, seekers and doubters... and you!
